SUDDEN DEATH

On Monday evening last, Mr. Peter BARTON, an old inhabitant of Ryde, left his accustomed rendezvous at the sluice and was wending his way home in Simeon-street. On arriving about half-way through Cornwall-street, he fell down in a fit. He was picked up and conveyed home close at hand, but he soon after expired. He scarcely ever ailed in his life, which was extended beyond three score and ten, having reached the good old age of 74 years.
