

WEDDING

On Thursday at St. John's Church in the presence of a large number of friends a marriage was celebrated between Mr. Frank William FARRAND, second son of Mr. F. FARRAND, manager of the Ryde Gaslight Company's works, and Miss Constance Nellie (Queen) TUTTE, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. TUTTE, of Dumbarton, Oakfield.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a dress of white silk eiolienne, trimmed with silver with insertion and lace, with a veil and a spray of orange blossom in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies and maiden hair fern, and wore a gold bracelet, set with diamonds and rubies, the gift of the bridegroom. attending the bride were Miss KNIGHT and Miss JOYNER (cousin), who wore blush-rose pink voile dresses with silk lace insertion, with white picture hats trimmed with roses and foliage, and carried bouquets of carnations and sweet peas. They wore gold brooches set with pearls, the gifts of the bridegroom.

The service was performed by the Vicar (the Rev. J. AIKMAN WILSON), who gave a special address, and the Rev. J. B. FRITH. The hymns "The voice that breathed o'er Eden," and "O Love Divine," were sung during the service. Mr. W. QUELCH was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the house of the bride's parents, at which about forty were present. Mr. and Mrs. FARRAND left for Folkestone where the honeymoon is being spent. The bride's going away attire was a tailor made navy blue costume, with pale blue silver trimming. She wore a mole coloured hat with pale pink roses.

The numerous wedding gifts included a silver water jug from the teachers and scholars of the St. John's-road Infant School, with the teaching staff of which Mrs FARRAND was recently connected, and a marmalade jar and spoon from the head mistress (Miss WATSON). The employees of the Gas Company, for whom Mr. FARRAND is assistant manager, presented the bride-groom with a handsome barometer as a memento of the occasion.

After the departure of the happy pair, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. TUTTE entertained the choir boys of St. John's Church to tea at their residence.

---