

1844 PIGOT & Co.'s DIRECTORY

WOODROW Jeremiah & Son, High-street, Ryde, IW.

1851 CENSUS: HO107/1664. folio 160. page 23.

Abode: 6 Lind-street, Ryde, IW.

Jeremiah WOODROW. Head. M. 71. Butcher. Newchurch, IW.

Sabra WOODROW. Wife. M. 73. Wool, Dorset.

Mary NEWMAN. Grand-daughter. Un. 21. Companion. Ryde, IW.

John Woodrow BISHOP. Grand-son. 10. Scholar. Bridgewater, Somerset.

Sarah MEW. Serv. Un. 31. House Servant. Newport, IW.

Will: Jeremiah WOODROW, Gent, Ryde. Reference: 1856.B104 (consistory).

NB: Jeremiah WOODROW died at Lind-street on April 1st 1856 and his burial is listed in the St. Thomas's Church register April 5th 1856.

Various documents are available in the IW Record Office, from 1803-1856, a brief sample of which is below:

June 18th 1811 Lease of a parcel of land with messuage and a butcher's shop built upon same, west side of the high-road nearly opposite the greene (113ft from north to south and 27ft from east to west on the north side). 17ft on the south side, bounded on the east by upper Ryde-street, and on the west side by land in the occupation of Mr. William WAVELL.

Researched by
Ann & Les Barrett