DEATH OF MRS. J. COLLINS.

It is with regret that we have to announce the death of an aged resident of Ryde in the person of Mrs. J. COLLINS, of Rockstone, Belvedere Street, Ryde, which occurred on Sunday last. The funeral took place on Wednesday. The first part of the service was at the Holy Trinity Church, and was conducted by the Rev. Canon D.E. YOUNG (nephew of the deceased lady), of Truro, assisted by the Rev. J.E. EDDIS, Vicar of Holy Trinity. The only other family mourner present was Miss Lily YOUNG (grand-niece), several members of the family being detained at Portsmouth on account of fog. The three domestic servants of deceased were present.

There was a large attendance of members of the church who came to pay a last tribute of respect to a well-known honoured friend. Amongst them were Miss F.M. CORRIE, Miss PILKINGTON, Miss BLAKE, Mrs. A.J. WADE, Mrs. IDEINS, Mrs. WORSELY, Major and Mrs. ROWLAND, Mrs. VINCENT, Miss LLOYD, Miss OWEN, Alderman E. GROVES, Mr. G. ADAMS, and many others. The coffin was of polished oak, with brass fittings and plate on which was engraved :

Juliana Collins,
Died February 9th,
Aged 98.

Mrs. COLLINS was interred in a grave with her daughter, Miss COLLINS, The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. C. LANGDON.

There were many beautiful wreaths which included the following: In kind remembrance from Ada and Annie, in loving remembrance from Mrs. and Miss M.W. HUNTER, Pellhurst, from Colonel and Mrs. YOUNG, in kind remembrance from Nancy, in remembrance of an old friend Mrs. and Misses WADE, Trinity Place, with deepest love from Miss BLAKE, Allswell, Belvedere Street, with love and sympathy from an old friend, M.A. OWEN, in memory of an old friend Mrs. J. WOSELEY and Miss L.N. BAINES, with love from two nieces, from Canon D.E. YOUNG, Gilbert and Elfrida YOUNG with deepest affection, the Misses LINDESAY, and Mr. Gilbert YOUNG.
