FUNERAL

Our obituary last week recorded the death of Mr. John RIDER, who had been for many years an assistant of Mr. ALLEN's in Union-street, and was generally respected. He had also been for a long time connected with the choir of St. Michael's and All Angels church, Swanmore. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, when the body was first of all conveyed to St. Michael's Church, where the first part of the service was performed by the vicar, the Rev. H. WIX. The coffin was then conveyed to the cemetery, headed by the choir, and the Revs. H. WIX and J.P. GRANTHAM, and followed by the mourners, and a number of personal friends. The remaining portion of the service at the grave was very impressively performed by the Rev. H. WIX. We regret to say that Mr. RIDER, who was in his 42nd year, leaves a wife and several young children to mourn his loss.
