DEATH OF MISS RICKARD

Much regret has been caused amongst her circle of friends in the town at the announcement of the death, which occurred on Sunday morning of Miss Lottie RICKARD, who was in business with her sisters as a jeweller in High-street. The deceased who was 48 years of age and daughter of the late Mr. E. RICKARD of the above old established business, had a breakdown in health a few months ago from which she partially recovered but it left her weaker than before. She was however, able to attend to customers in the shop as usual and on Sunday morning she went out for a walk. On her return she complained of biliousness and soon after lost consciousness and passed away.

Needless to say her death caused profound grief to her sisters with whom much sympathy is expressed. The funeral took place on Thursday, and was attended with every mark of respect. The coffin covered with wreaths was taken into the Chapel where the first part of the service was conducted by the Rev. H. D. CESAR, of All Saints, who also officiated at the graveside. The mourners comprised the Misses M. and E. RICKARD (sisters), Mr. H. BARNES (uncle), Miss WHITEHOUSE, Mr. SHOTTER, Mr. A.E. HOLMES, J.P., and Mr. J.G. DUFFETT. The breastplate of the coffin was simply inscribed with deceased's name and age.

The wreaths comprised: From her sister and Charles (Mr. and Mrs. C. LOADER); in affectionate remembrance S. and A. JAMES; In loving memory, Sallie and family; Mr. PURNELL, Vera and Ena; With sincere sympathy Mr. and Mrs. J. G. DUFFETT; Mr. and Mrs. SHOTTER; Mr. and Mrs. DIMMICK (The Briary); Mr. and Mrs. George JAMES; "W. J. T."; Mr. BATTERSBY; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred HOLMES; "Peggy"; Mrs. SIMMONDS and Mrs. HALL; Mrs. MEARMAN (Liverpool); "From Marie and Walter (Smallbrook Farm); with deep regret, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. PURNELL and family. Bunches of violets and primroses were also deposited on the coffin.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. PURNELL and PURNELL. The Misses M. and E. RICKARD desire to express their sincere thanks for the numerous expressions of sympathy received in their bereavement, also for the floral tokens sent.
