TRADESMAN'S FUNERAL

Amid every mark of respect the funeral took place on Monday of Mr. Stephen (Bon) SHERWIN, late of the Bon Bon, 184 High-street, who died after a distressing illness aged 54. The deceased who came to Ryde about 18 years ago had suffered from a stroke which gradually but completely deprived him of his eyesight. He was a highly respected tradesman and enjoyed a wide circle of friends. Much sympathy is expressed with the widow.

The mourners at the funeral were Mrs. SHERWIN (widow), Mr. W. FENTON (brother-in-law), Mr. and Miss SYLVESTER, Mr. BARKHAM, Mr. WANT, Mr. B. CHAPMAN and other friends. The service was impressively carried out by the Rev. E.D. HUNTER. The following sent wreaths :

Wife and Lizzie, Mr. and Mrs. FENTON, Dorie and Stanley, Joe and Lizzie, Bert and Len, Mrs. SYLVESTER and family. Mr. and Mrs. BARKHAM, Mrs. BUTCHERS, Mr. J. G. DUFFETT, Mr. and Mrs. LYNCH, Mr. and Mrs. BIGGS, Messrs. CHAPMAN, WANT, SIMS, CARTER, and "from a few friends."

Messrs. PURNELL and PURNELL were the undertakers. Mrs. SHERWIN desires to express her sincere thanks for the sympathy shown in her great beavment, and kind enquires, and also for the beautiful floral tokens and asks friends to accept this intimation of her thanks.
