The decease of Mr. Edward CARTER, of East Upton, Ryde, at the age of 72, is recorded in our obituary column. The deceased gentleman expired after a somewhat, long illness on Friday last, at his residence. He took an active part in public business until a few years ago. He served on the Highway Commissioners for a considerable period up to the passing of the new act last year. He held also the office of churchwarden on the division of the parish in 1867, and was churchwarden of the parish of Ryde for several years.
