MR. W. G. RODWELL

Sympathy is felt with the relatives of Mr. William George RODWELL, of 19 Lower-Highland-road, Ryde, who collapsed and died suddenly while taking part in a League Darts match between Ryde Gas Board "B" team and the Post Office Engineers at the Crown Hotel on Friday evening. The facts were reported to the Coroner (Mr. R.E.A. WEBSTER) who after a post-mortem, decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. RODWELL, who was 71, was a native of the Island and a former employee of Ryde Gas Company. Following a severe illness many years ago he had enjoyed fairly good health and was extremely active until the time of his death. A widower, he lost his wife about five years ago and had since lived with his youngest daughter, in addition to whom he leaves two other daughters.

The Rev. A.J. PEARMAN officiated at the funeral service at St. John's Church, Ryde, yesterday. Mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. E. GULLICK and Mr. and Mrs. R. PRATT (sons-in-law and daughters) and Miss V. RODWELL (daughter).

Others present included Messrs. S. CORNEY, W. LANGDON, and F. MILES (representing Dept. of Southern Gas Board), Mr. H. COMDEN (office staff), Mr. J. LININGTON (fitting dept.), Mr. KING (darts league secretary) and members of the Darts League and Gasworks Social Club.
