PARENTS SAD LOSS

Much sympathy is felt with Mr. and Mrs. W. HATCHER of 9 Preston Close, whose elder son was drowned in a boating accident in May 1946, in the death of their youngest daughter Myra Lorraine, on Thursday week. The child aged 2 years 7 months, had been ill for a fortnight.

The Rev. E.T.H. ROYDS (vicar) conducted the service at St John's Church on Tuesday, and the mourners were Mr. HATCHER (father), and Mrs. J. TATE, and Mr. and Mrs. E.M. JENVEY (brothers-in-law and sisters), Miss Pat CALLOWAY, and Messrs. J. JONES and A. TATE. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery in the grave of her brother, and the floral tributes included those from Mrs. S. C. NEEDHAM and Miss D. WEEKS, of the Galleon Restaurant (of which Mr. HATCHER was head chef) the manager and staff. A tribute from neighbours was a representation of the Heavenly Gates, composed of jonquils and doves, and they also gave a vase.

Mr. and Mrs. HATCHER thank Mr. H.C. LIESCHING, nurses, and all neighbours for their kindness, letters of sympathy, and flowers in their sad bereavement. Please accept this as the only acknowledgement.
