DEATH OF MR. C. L. PANNEL

Ryde loses by the death of Mr. C. L. PANNEL one of its most respected and generous townsmen. The deceased gentleman (who was 87 years of age), had been ailing for some little time and was gradually growing weaker; heart failure accelerated by influenza, was the cause of his death, which occurred shortly before eleven on Monday morning last. He had resided in Ryde for many years and was till recently a regular attendant of St. James's Church. The deceased was everywhere noted for his abundant generosity, and was a subscriber to almost every charitable and religious institution in the district. Rarely, if ever, was an appeal for assistance to him made in vain, and his unostentatious methods of helping deserving families and societies win him the love and respect of everyone with whom he came in contact.

The funeral service conducted by the Rev. Canon SHEARME, and the Rev. R.R. COUSENS (incumbent of St. James'), was attended by many of the deceased's fellow townsman, including the W.H. WELBY, Mr. Alfred DASHWOOD, Ald. E. GROVVS, Dr. BANKS, Messrs. A. BLACKBURNE, A. HACKSHAW, LOCKE, and Claude E. SMITH (Churchwarden of St. James' Church).

RYDE: ST. JAMES

The incumbent, the Rev. R. R. COUSENS, presided at the annual Easter Vestry. He went on to speak of the great loss the church had sustained in the removal by death of Mr. C. L. PANNEL, another earnest supporter.
