

WEDDING

On Tuesday, Mr. A.W. Hill, eldest son of Mr. A. Hill of Ventnor and Ryde, was married at All Saint's Church to Miss S. J. A. Lake, second daughter of the late Mr. W. Lake of Ryde. The ceremony was performed by the Vicar (the Rev. J. Shearme). The bride, who wore a very handsome dress of white bengaline silk, trimmed with lace, with vest, and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a splendid bouquet, was given away by her brother, Mr. G. W. Lake, of Gatehouse. She was attended by Miss Hill and Miss May Hill, sisters of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. These young ladies wore dresses of fawn corduroy, trimmed with green velvet, with hats to match. Mr. F. G. Stripp was best man. There was a large congregation present to witness the ceremony. The bells were rung as the wedding party left the church. The wedding breakfast took place at Steynsbury, Pellurst-road. Mr. and Mrs. Hill left by the 4 o'clock boat for London with the good wishes of many friends. The presents were numerous and valuable.
