

WEDDING

Considerable interest was shown by a large congregation which assembled in the Ryde Parish Church, on Tuesday afternoon, to witness the pretty, but quiet wedding of the son and daughter of two of our well-known townsmen. The bride was Miss Mary Ada Lowe, eldest daughter of Mr. James Lowe, of \Union street, and the bridegroom was Mr. Arthur Tarrant, second son of Mr. J. N. Tarrant, T.C.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a satin petticoat, and broche train and orange blossoms, and carried a handsome bouquet of white flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Lowe, Miss Dora Tarrant, wearing dresses of cream crepon. Cream hats trimmed with primrose silk, and carrying handsome bouquets to match. Then followed two little girls, who looked exceedingly pretty- Miss Dora Mullins and Miss Irene Tunmer, dressed in primrose silk and hats to correspond, and carrying bouquets of garden daffodils. The party made an effective picture. Mr. Bertie Tarrant acted as best man.

The ceremony was performed by the Vicar (Rev. J. Shearme), and as the party left the church the organist played the well known wedding march. A very large circle of friends sent numerous presents, over a hundred, and every happiness is wished for the bride and bridegroom who left later in the afternoon for London.
