

1881 CENSUS: RG11/1181. folio 22. page 37.

Address: Spencer House, St. John's Park, Oakfield, Ryde, IW.

Arthur C. PIGOU. Head. Mar. 55. Maj-Gen. R.A. Ret-List. York, England.

Jemima PIGOU. Wife. Mar. 55. Hampshire.

Frederica E. U. PIGOU. Dau. Unm. 24. Anglesea, Alverstoke, Hants.

Henrietta I. PIGOU. Dau. Unm. 22. Anglesea, Alverstoke, Hants.

Mary B. PIGOU. Dau. Unm. 20. Southsea, Hants.

Elizabeth E. PIGOU. Dau. Unm. 18. Scholar. Ballis....., Ireland.

Ernestine M. PIGOU. Sister. Unm. 51. Baden-Baden, Germany.

Caroline OATLEY. Serv. Unm. 26. Domestic Serv Cook. Wilts.

Ellen OATLEY. Serv. Unm. 22. Domestic Serv Parlour Maid. Wilts.

Kate WOOD. Serv. Unm. 23. Domestic Serv House Maid. Brighton, Sussex.

1898 KELLY's DIRECTORY of Hampshire & Isle of Wight - page 415

PIGOU Major-Gen. Arthur Comyn, R.A., Spencer House, St. John's Park, Ryde, IW.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 20th December 1902 page 1

Death Notice:-

PIGOU: On December 12th, 1902, at Spencer House, St. John's Park, Ryde, Major-General Arthur Comyn PIGOU (late R.A.) aged 78 years.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 20th December 1902 page 8

FUNERAL OF THE LATE GENERAL PIGOU, R.A

The remains of the late General PIGOU, R.A., were interred at the Ryde Cemetery on Monday. The body was enclosed in a very handsome polished oak coffin, on the breastplate was the inscription:

Arthur Comyn PIGOU
Died December 12th, 1902'
Aged 78 years.

The first part of the service was sung at All Saints' Church. The chief mourners were: Dean of Bristol, Mr. A. PIGOU and Mr. G. PIGOU (sons), Miss F. PIGOU, H. PIGOU, M. PIGOU, and sister Eveline (daughters), Nurse WALKER, Nurse REES, Annie BUTLER and Ellen BUTLER (servants), Mrs. RICHARDS, Mr. DENNETT (Park Gardens), Mr. CASS, Mr. HAYLES, and Mr. SYLVESTER.

Amongst those present in the church were the Revs. W.F.J. HANBURY, and O.Y. BULKELEY, Dr. J.D. DAVIES, Capt. UNDERWOOD, Mrs. H. STONE, Miss MURREY, Miss BARRY, and Mr. TOMS. The hymns "Nearer my God to Thee", "Now the labourer's task is o'er." And "On the Resurrection morning" were sung. The Vicar (the Rev. J. SHEARME) officiated. Dr. MANDER played the "Dead March" in Saul as the body was being removed from the church. At the Cemetery, Ald. GROVES, J.P., and Mr. H. SWEETMAN, J.P., were also present.

There was a magnificent floral cross of orchids, chrysanthemums, lilies and other white flowers on the coffin. Cecil DANIELL, Mr. and Mrs. Edward CARTER, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. F. MONTAGU ENGLAND, Capt. and Mrs. DOBIE, Beatrice, Mrs. ROBERT and Miss MURRAY, Col. and Mrs. HOWARD-BROOKE, Capt. and Mrs. UNDERWOOD, Mr. and Miss J.J.

FLETCHER, Mrs. SAUNDERS, Mrs. LISCOMBE, Mrs., Miss and Mr. HUNTER, and Annie and Nellie BUTLER.

Mr. C. LANGDON was in charge of the arrangements.

(Also in the IW Observer Sat 20th Dec 1902 no more information)

(Also in the IW Times Thurs 18th Dec 1902 no more information)

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
David Harris
Marilyn Newsham