

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 16th May 1903.

Death Notice:-

CRADOCK .. May 14, at Woodbine, George-street, Ryde, Edward James CRADOCK aged 87.

The discrepancy in the first name has been noted, which should have been "Edmund"

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 16th May 1903.

Death Notice:-

CRADOCK .. On May 14th, 1903, at his residence, Woodbine, George Street, Ryde, Edmund Jas CRADOCK, Esq. No flowers by request.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 23rd May 1903 Page 8

FUNERAL OF MR. E. J. CRADOCK

The remains of the late Mr. E. J. CRADOCK were interred at the Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. C. Rhodes HALL officiating. The mourners were Col. W. E. CRADOCK, J. P. (son), the Hon. And Rev. ADDERLEY (nephew, representing Lord NORTON, deceased's only brother), Mr. H. H. CAREW, Mr. A. R. BROOKE LEEDS, Col. ENGLAND, Capt. DAUBUZ, J. P., Mr. W. E. RATCLIFFE, Mr. E. R. RATCLIFFE, Dr. BANKS, the servants at Woodbine (deceased's residence), the captain and crew of the Blandusia (deceased's yacht), and the servants at the Castle (Col. CRADOCK's residence).

There were also present Gen. FETHERSTONHAUGH, Capt. GREEN, Major SWEETMAN, Capt. F. J. GREEN, Capt. FANE, Lieut. Garside TIPPING, Major LOWTHER-CROFTON, Col. CAREY, Mr. Percy THELLUSSON, the Rev. W. G. WHITTAM, Capt. Ronald ALEXANDER, and Messrs. H. DURRANT, A. G. PURNELL, and CONACHER. The grave was lined with evergreens, and a large cross of the same was placed upon it. There was only one wreath that from Lord and Lady LEIGH. The coffin was of unpolished oak and the brass plate thereon bore the inscription: "Edward James Cradock. Born 17th January, 1816."

Mr. C. LANGDON efficiently carried out his duties as the undertaker

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Kate Macdonell