MISS PATRICIA DELANEY

We regret to record the death of Miss Patricia DELANEY, of Chelsea Villa, Cornwall Street, Ryde, who passed away at the County Hospital on Friday. Only 19 years of age, she had been in delicate health for 18 months, and was removed to the County Hospital a few days ago for a thyroid operation. The youngest of eight children, she was educated at a convent school at Bognor, and later at the Convent of the Cross, Ryde. Her sunny disposition endeared her to all, and her death is deeply felt by a wide circle of friends. By a sad coincidence she passed away exactly ten months to the day after her father. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. DELANEY and family.

The funeral took place at St. Mary's Church, Ryde, on Monday, when the service was conducted by the Very Rev. Provost S. MONGAN. The chief mourners were : Messrs George, Herbert, Francis, and Joseph DELANEY, (brothers), Miss Margaret DELANEY, (sister). Miss Elizabeth DELANEY and Miss Elizabeth HANNIGAN (cousins). Mrs. DELANEY was unable to attend.

Those present at the service included Mrs O'CONNELL, Miss K. O'CONNELL, Miss D. LANGFORD, Mr Tom MAYO, Father STUART, Mr. and Mrs. GOLDSMITH, Mr. Harry GOLDSMITH, Mr. ATKINSON, Mr. and Mrs. HEALEY, Mr. GISSEN, and members of the staff of the Convent of the Cross.

The interment took place at Ryde Cemetery, and among the numerous floral tributes were wreaths from the management and staff of the Commodore Theatre, Messrs, BARTON'S, and Messrs. BOZEN'S LTD., and the Lewes and County Club.

DEATH OF MISS P. DELANEY

The death occurred rather suddenly at the County Hospital on Friday week of Miss Patricia DELANEY, of Chelsea Villa, Cornwall Street, at the early age of 19. On the previous day Miss DELANEY was operated on for the removal of the thyroid gland, but succumbed some 12 hours later. Although never enjoying very robust health, the news of her death came as a very great shock to many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. DELANEY came here from Bognor some 12 years ago and Mr. DELANEY, who died exactly 10 months to the day before Patricia, was well known as having served on the Royal cutter Britannia. Miss DELANEY was a very popular pupil at the Convent of the Cross School and was for a time employed by Messrs. BOZON and latterly was an attendant at the Commodore Theatre.

The funeral service was held at St. Mary's R.C. Church on Monday, the Rev. Canon S. MONGAN officiating. The family mourners were Messrs. George, Herbert, Francis, and Joseph DELANEY (brothers), Miss Margaret DELANEY (sister), and the Misses Elizabeth DELANEY and Elizabeth HANNIGAN (cousins). Among the large congregation present were Mrs. and Miss K. O'CONNELL, Miss D. LANGFORD, Mr. Tom MAYO, Father STUART, Mr. and Mrs. GOLDSMITH, Mr., Mrs., and Miss HEALY, Mr GISSEN, and Mr. and Mrs. READ.

The large number of beautiful floral tributes included wreaths from the manager and staff of the Commodore Theatre, the manager of the Scala Theatre and Mrs. TAYLOR, Mr, and Mrs. F. BARTON (Messrs Bozons), and the Lewes and County Club. Mrs. DELANEY and family wish to thank all kind friends and sympathisers for their great kindness, and also for the magnificent floral tributes.
