ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 31st May 1894

DEATH OF DR. TURNER

It is with much regret we record the death of an old medical practitioner of the town, Dr. TURNER, who died at his residence, Barfield, Ryde, on Saturday afternoon. Although the deceased gentleman had been in ill-health for a long period, the end was somewhat sudden, he being taken seriously ill on the Tuesday before his death. Dr. TURNER's full name was William, Fredk. John, and he stood high in his profession, being LLB., Cantab; M.R.C.P., Edin., 1868; M.R.C.S. Eng. 1851(St Geo.,) Mem. British Med. Assoc; hon. Medical officer of the Ryde dispensary, the late hon. Medical officer of the R.V.Y.C., formerly house surgeon of Queen Charlotte's Lying-in-Hospital.

Dr. TURNER succeeded his uncle, the late Dr. Mark BROWN, and had been in practice in Ryde , over 30 years, and was 63 years of age. Dr. TURNER was a Mason and had passed through the principal offices. The funeral takes place this Thursday at 12 o'clock, Messrs. E. MARVIN and sons having charge of the arrangements.
