

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1156. folio 30. page 10.

Abode: Hennerton House, Pennys-lane, Wokingham, Berks.

John W. RHODES. Head. M. 60. Living on own means J.P. (employer). Yorks.

Mary A. RHODES. Wife. M. 56. France (British Subject).

Mary B. RHODES. Dau. S. 29. Wargrave, Berks.

Violet M. RHODES. Dau. S. 19. Wargrave, Berks.

Winifred M. RHODES. Gr/dau. 2. Ryde, IW.

Mary HUCKLE. Serv. S. 65. Domestic. Brickenden, Herts.

Grace JOHNSTON. Serv. S. 37. Domestic. Scotland.

Thomas BASSET. Serv. S. 21. Footman Domestic. Oxford, Oxon.

George EWENS. Serv. S. 18. Footman Domestic. Aldworth, Hants.

Emma HORNE. Serv. S. 25. Domestic. Reading, Berks.

Margaret BAKER. Serv. S. 24. Domestic. Middle Wallop, Hants.

Etta SAUNDERS. Serv. S. 20. Domestic. Reading, Berks.

Emily J. JOHNSON. Serv. S. 19. Domestic. Bisham, Berks.

Louisa PITTMAN. Serv. S. 37. Domestic. Salisbury, Wilts.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday Aug 8th 1970, page 16.

MAGISTRATE'S DEATH

Mrs. Winifred Mary BROWNE, J.P., aged 71, of 136 Marlborough-road, died suddenly at her home on Wednesday. Born at Fishbourne, Mrs. BROWNE was the daughter of Colonel J. E. RHODES, commander of the I.W. Rifles during the 1914-18 war, and Mrs. RHODES. She lived all her life in the borough except for a few years spent in France after that war. The widow of Colonel Alfred Percy BROWNE, D.S.O., she was well-known in public life. Mrs. BROWNE was appointed a magistrate in March 1946. She was also a member of Bembridge Sailing and Seaview Yacht clubs. Mrs. BROWNE is survived by a son and two daughters, Mr. Sam BROWNE, secretary of Bembridge S.C., Mrs. Concord MORTON, of Bembridge, and Mrs. Gill ALEXANDER, of Swaziland. The funeral took place yesterday, a service at St. John's Church being followed by interment at Ryde Cemetery.

---

Researched by Ann and Les Barrett