DEATH OF MRS. BENETT BRIGSTOCKE

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mrs. Elizabeth BRIGSTOCKE at her residence, Saxonbury, West-street, on Wednesday. Deceased, who was on the eve of her 71st birthday, was the widow of Mr. William Benett Player BRIGSTOCKE and aunt to Mr. William Player BRIGSTOCKE, J.P., and Mr. G. R. BRIGSTOCKE, C.A. She had spent all her married life in Ryde, formerly residing at St. Vincents, Binstead-road, which she left after the death of her husband in 1884, and had since resided at Saxonbury. Mrs. BRIGSTOCKE had been ailing for some months, but was able to get out and had only been confined to her bed a few days. Of a retiring disposition, she was much esteemed by many friends. She was a regular attendant at St. Thomas's Church. There is no family. The funeral takes place at St. Thomas's Church on Tuesday. There are to be no flowers, by request.
