

1861 CENSUS: RG9/658. folio 26. page 12.
Address: Strand Tavern, Ryde, Newchurch, IW.

Charles SEYMOUR. Head. Mar. 57. Mariner. Ryde, IW.
Eliza SEYMOUR. Wife. Mar. 47. Laundress. Southsea, Hanats.
Charles Hy. SEYMOUR. Son. Un. 30. Mariner. Ryde, IW.
Annie Eliza SEYMOUR. Dau. Un. 17. Late teacher. Ryde, IW.

NB: There were 3 different families listed at the above address, none being a licensed victualer or hotel keeper.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 27th Sept 1862

TOKEN OF RESPECT

A young woman named SEYMOUR, late a pupil teacher in Trinity National Schools, lately died of consumption, and her remains, followed by many of her schoolmates, were consigned on Sunday last to that "bourne from whence no traveller returns." Her mother, overcome with grief, had an hysterical fit at the grave.

---

Researched by
Ann Barrett