TAXIDRIVER'S SUDDEN DEATH

The death occurred suddenly on Thursday morning of Mr. Jabez TEASDALE, aged 59, of 10 Surrey-street. Mr. TEASDALE was walking towards St. John's railway station with his wife, intending to spend the day at Portsmouth, when he collapsed and died almost immediately. The facts have been reported to the Coroner. A native of Burnoak, Durham, he had lived here since childhood. He was an enthusiastic football player, and in later years served on the committee of Ryde Sports Club. He was a member and former president of Ryde Social Club. During the war he was in the A.R.P. service and for the last eleven years had operated a car hire service. He leaves a son and two daughters.

NB: A mistake has been noted in the above newspaper, of the age given as 59, which should have been 69.
