RETIRED STATION MASTER'S DEATH

The death occurred on Monday of Mr. Frank STUDD, aged 63, of Lucerne, John-street. Mr. STUDD retired four years ago from Crook, Durham, where he was station-master for many years. During the first world war he served with the Royal Engineers and in the last war was a member of the Home Guard.

The funeral took place at All Saints' Church on Thursday. The mourners were Mrs. A. E. STUDD (widow), Mr. E. J. STUDD (son), Mr. and Mrs. C. SMITH, Mr. A. SMITH, and Mrs. D. MANSFIELD (son-in-law and daughters), Mr. E. STUDD (brother), Miss M. STUDD (sister), and Messrs. C. and F. SMITH and Miss M. SMITH (grandchildren).
