DEATH OF MRS. A. F. HAYLES –

The death occurred at her home 23 Trinity-street, on Sunday, of Mrs. Amy Florence HAYLES, aged 78, widow of Mr. E. HAYLES, a professional gardener and expert rose grower. During the last war Mrs. HAYLES did valued work as a welfare officer in London's Dockland. Subsequently she held a staff post at St. Bartholomew's Hospital for more than four years, and then took up a business appointment at Bournemouth before coming here about 11 years ago. The possessor of a good alto voice, she joined the Borough Philharmonic Society and sang with the chorus at several of the society's concerts. She was also an active member of St John's Women's Institute for some years and took part in productions of the institute dramatic society. Afterwards she joined the former Evening Townswomen's Guild. During the last 10 years she had resided with her brother, Mr. A. E. COOPER. The funeral took place at Ryde Cemetery on Thursday.
