ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday July 10th 1952

Mr. G. J. WEST

Fellow-members of the Island branch of the South African Wars Veterans Association formed a guard of honour at the funeral on Tuesday of Mr. George James WEST, of 31 Harding-road, Oakfield, who died on Friday, aged 78.

A native of Ryde. Mr. WEST was a veteran of the South African wars who joined the Army when he was 16 and served with the Royal Field Artillery. During the first world war he transferred to the Royal Flying Corps from the Hampshire Regiment and during the latter hostilities he was employed on armaments in Cowes. Later he worked for Messrs. LANGDON and Son and Ryde Corporation. He leaves a widow, a son and a daughter.

The Vicar (the Rev. A.J. PEARMAN) officiated at the funeral service at St. John's Church, and the mourners attending were Mrs. E. COURTNEY (daughter), Mr. E.G. WEST (son), Mrs. F. VANNER (sister), Messrs. W., C., and F. LANGDON (brothers), Messrs. H. HAYES and H. RANN (brothers-in-law), Mrs. E. URRY (sister-in-law), Mrs. S. PARKER (granddaughter), Mr. W. HEWISON (nephew), Mrs. F. ATTRILL and Mr. F. BARNES. Interment was at Ryde Cemetery. Members of the guard of honour were Messrs. M. OSBORNE (vice-president), W. FERGUSON (standard-bearer and secretary), W.H. ELDRIDGE, G. GRINHAM, R. GREENHAM and W. BROWN.

Wreaths included one from the association.
