MR. R. B. MEW

Garfield Methodist Church, Ryde, has lost by the death of Mr. Richard Burden MEW, of 70 Well Street, Ryde, its oldest member and trustee. He founded the cabinet making business in Union Road, Ryde, of R. B. MEW and Son, which has since been transferred to his son, Mr. A. R. MEW. Deceased had been ill for many years, and his death on November 30th was not unexpected. The widow, who is an invalid, has left Ryde and is now in the care of her daughter, Mrs. E. TITMUS, at Cowes.

The funeral took place at the Cemetery Chapel on Saturday, the service being taken by The Rev. A. G. Lloyd. The family mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. MEW (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. E. TITMUS (son-in-law and daughter), Mrs. F. WYATT (daughter), Mr. E. WYATT (grandson), Miss P. MEW, Mrs. E. BARTLETT (grand-daughters), Miss E. GRAY and Mrs. A. CROSS (nieces), Mrs. FARMER, Mrs. W. BOYCE and Mrs. J. BOYCE (sisters-in-law). Miss PIGGOTT, whose services as nurse for many months were much appreciated by the family, was also present.
