CHURCH WORKER'S DEATH

Mrs. Frances Elizabeth TOOGOOD, aged 78 of Wray-street, died at the Royal I.W. County Hospital on Saturday. She had retired only recently through failing health from the position of caretaker at the Congregational Church, George-street. During the 40 years she was caretaker Mrs. TOOGOOD raised over £1000 for church funds, and when she relinquished her duties tribute to her work was paid by the minister (the Rev. G. J. NELSON) and leading members of the church, and she was presented with a cheque in appreciation of her loyal and devoted services. She is survived by her husband, four sons, and a daughter.

The minister officiated at the funeral at the church on Tuesday, and the choir led the singing of "Abide with me." Mrs. K. INGRAM was the organist. All sections of the church life were represented and wreaths were sent from the church, the minister and deacons, the tea committee, and the Sunday-school. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery.
