EX-RIFLEMAN'S' DEATH

The death occurred on Thursday week of Mr. Harry James ALLNUTT at his home, 1 Meaders Road, after only a few hours' illness. He was brought home from work on Wednesday evening and died at mid-day the following day. Mr. ALLNUTT, who was 58, had lived here all his life. He served in Palestine with the Isle of Wight Rifles in the first world war and was a keen member of the local Home Guard in the second world war. He was employed by Messrs. J. S. White and Co., Ltd., at Cowes and Southampton, and before that for some years by British Railways on Ryde Pier maintenance. He was a member of the Welcome Lodge, R.A.O.B. He was unmarried. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery on Monday, following a service at St. John's Church. The Vicar, (the Rev. A. J. PEARMAN) officiated and the mourners were Mr. A. ALLNUTT (brother), Mrs. C. BRIDLE, Mrs. MORONEY, Mrs. F. SMITH, and Mrs. C. KNAPP (sisters), Mr. and Mrs. R. HENLEY and Mr. and Mrs. F. ALLNUTT (nephews and nieces), and Mr. L. WOODWARD. Also present at the church were some of the brethren of the R.A.O.B. (Welcome and Lion Lodges), representatives of his workmates at Cowes and Southampton, his friends at the Railway Commercial Inn, and his workmates of British Railways. The floral tributes included those from workmates at Cowes and Southampton; friends and neighbours of Meaders Road and St. John's Hill; pals at the Railway Commercial; the Welcome Lodge, R.A.O.B.; and the Lion Lodge, R.A.O.B. Messrs. Wheeler Bros. made the arrangements. ----- The family wish to thank Dr. T. HAMBLY for his tireless attention and friends and relatives for flowers and messages of sympathy. Please accept this as the only intimation.
