

1891 CENSUS: RG12/890. folio 18. page 29.

Address: Binstead, IW.

William TAYLOR. Head. M. 40. Gardener. St. Helens, IW.

Fanny TAYLOR. Wife. M. 42. Brooke, IW.

William J. TAYLOR. Son. 16. Dairyman's Assistant. Binstead, IW.

Ellen J. TAYLOR. Dau. 12. Scholar. Binstead, IW.

Emily L. TAYLOR. Dau. 10. Scholar. Binstead, IW.

Annie F. TAYLOR. Dau. 7. Scholar. Binstead, IW.

Alice B. TAYLOR. Dau. 5. Scholar. Binstead, IW.

Jessie M. TAYLOR. Dau. 2. Binstead, IW.

MARRIAGE: 9th Dec 1900 at Binstead Church, IW.

William James TAYLOR. 25. Bachelor. RN AB Seaman (fthr: William TAYLOR, gardener)

& Annie Louisa BEVES. 21. Spinster. of Ryde (fthr: William James BEVES, baker)

witnesses: Herbert George NEWMAN & Nellie TAYLOR.

BAPTISM of son : 18th Aug 1901 at Ryde

William Herbert Kenneth TAYLOR

son of William James & Annie Louise TAYLOR of 22 Preston-place

(fathers occupation: R.N.)

In 1911 William was to be found aboard the Nab Light Vessel as an A.B. Seaman for Trinity House.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 3rd May 1941

AN AIR RAID VICTIM

The funeral took place at the cemetery on Saturday of Mr. William TAYLOR, aged 66, formerly of Chapel-road, a member of one of the oldest local families, who died from injuries received in an air raid on London.

The Rev. H. MacRow officiated and the mourners were the widow, son, and daughter. Miss TAYLOR and Mrs. A. PRAGNELL (sisters), Mr. and Mrs. REDMAN (brother-in-law and sister), Mrs. HOBBS, and Mr. COOMBES.

BURIAL: 26th Apr 1941 at Binstead

William James TAYLOR age 66

Researched & typed by

Ann Barrett

Carol strong