OBITUARY – MISS ESTHER BONE

The funeral took place at St. James's Church on Monday of Miss Esther BONE, of Albert Cottage, Pellhurst-road. The deceased, who was in her 90th year, was the last surviving daughter of Mr. W. BONE, a former well known nurseryman. The deceased was keenly interested in mission work and charitable causes. The Rev. E. E. M. GREEN officiated and referred to the deceased's association with the church. The hymn "The day Thou gavest" was sung. The mourners were Mrs. BARLEY (cousin), Mrs. B. HAIR, Mrs. DOWNER, Miss SKINNER, and Mr. H. COLLYER. The remains were interred in the family grave at the cemetery. There were several beautiful wreaths.

NB; We have noted the discrepancy in the initial of Esther's father in the newspaper report, this was probably an error by the reporter or whoever gave the information.
