DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT –

On the 6th inst., there passed away an old and respected inhabitant in the person of Mr. Thomas SIBLEY, in his 94th year. He was a native of Arreton and well-known in the Island as a builder, having commenced business in Ryde about the year 1847, and taken part in many important works. He was a member of the old body of Ryde Commissioners and when the town was incorporated he became a member of the first council, which office he filled for several terms. There is now only one of the original members of the Ryde Town Council living, Mr. Thomas DASHWOOD, J.P., who was the first Mayor in 1868.
