

THE FASHIONABLE LIST - Isle of Wight Observer 7th Aug 1869
Gen & Mrs. SULLIVAN, St. Ann's House, Pelham-Field, Ryde

1871 CENSUS: RG10/1165. folio 43. page 37.
Address: St. Ann's House, Pelham Field, Ryde, IW.

Euphemia C. SULLIVAN. Head. W. 56. Dividends. Ireland.

Amllyn D'arcy IRVINE. Sister. W. 50. Dividends. Ireland.

Agnes BRAD. Visitor. W. 35. Dividends. London.

Elizabeth Beale BURNE ? Cousin. Unm. 18. Dau of Beale Burne Supt Park Glouc. London.

Tom KEANE. Serv. Unm. 22. Butler. Gloucestershire.

Hocatea Alfred HOWE. Visitor. Unm. 25. Farmer. London.

Mary COCKERELL. Serv. Unm. 50. Cook. Norfolk.

Isabella WYLLER. Serv. Unm. 24. Ladies Maid. Wilts.

Frances Lewis HALL. Serv. Unm. 20. Ladies Maid. Gloucestershire.

Emma JAMES. Serv. Unm. 20. Housemaid. Gloucestershire.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 1st September 1877

DEATH OF MRS SULLIVAN

Our obituary records the death of Mrs. SULLIVAN (the widow of Major-General SULLIVAN, C.B.), which took place on Saturday last, at Winchelsea House. The deceased lady had resided in Ryde for a great number of years, formerly at St. Ann's, Pelham-field, and was widely known and respected. Although Mrs. SULLIVAN had suffered some time from illness, its serious nature was not at first suspected, and her death will create surprise as well as general regret.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell