FUNERAL

The remains of Mr. James INMAN, a lay reader, and member of the choir of All Saints' Church (best known to the public perhaps as a gentleman who, with his wife, took part in the popular entertainments of the past winter), were interred in Ryde Cemetery on Monday, a full choral service having previously taken place in All Saints' Church. The Rev. A. POOLE, assisted by the Revs, SLATTER and THOMAS, officiated. Wreaths and crosses of choice flowers were placed on the coffin.
