MR. H. W. GRINHAM DIES AT 71

Well known Ryde Businessman

After a short illness, Mr. Harry Wyndham GRINHAM, died at his home on Monday. He was 71.

Well known in the town, Mr. GRINHAM was head of a builder's and decorator's business founded 60 years ago by his late father, Mr. Henry GRINHAM, at 11 John-street, Ryde, who died in 1941 at the age of 89. He was a member of Ryde Conservative Club for many years.

At the outbreak of the First World War Mr. GRINHAM joined the Isle of Wight Rifles and served in France and Egypt and took part in the Gallipoli landings.

After demobilisation he returned to his father's business.

His two brothers, Mr. Bernard GRINHAM and Mr. Ivan GRINHAM are now living in Newbury, Berkshire.

Mr. GRINHAM leaves a widow, Mrs. Daisy Kate GRINHAM and a daughter, Mrs. J. TURNER, now living in Jersey.

The funeral will take place at All Saints Church, Ryde, on Friday afternoon, conducted by the Vicar the Rev. R. H. BASSETT.
