LATE MR. LEN TAYLER -

The funeral of the late Mr. Leonard TAYLER, for many years Secretary of the Ryde Pier Co., and who died after a few days illness, aged 51, took place on Saturday, and was accompanied by every mark of respect. The cortege left the deceased's late residence "Dalkeith", Rink-road shortly before three o'clock and proceeded to All Saints Church where the first part of the Burial Service was carried out by the Vicar (the Rev. H. Le FLEMING). The coffin was covered by some beautiful wreaths. The mourners comprised Mrs. Emily TAYLER (widow), Miss Mona TAYLER (daughter), Messrs. William, Chas. M. and Ernest TAYLER (brothers), George WILLIAMS (brother-in-law), Mrs. W. TAYLER and Mrs. Chas G. TAYLER (sisters-in-law), also Mr. Arthur GILBERT and Mr. Ambrose EDNEY (cousins). Those present in the church included the Mayor (Alderman A. ANDREWS, J.P.C.C.) Alderman G. E. MEARS, J.P., Alderman G. A. BLACKALL and Mr. Chas LANGDON (directors of the Pier Coy), Mr. E. S. REVETT (representing the Royal Thames Yacht Club whose local headquarters are at the Pierhead), Mr. G. H. FRENCH (station master), Mr. LEE, (late station master of St. John's-road), Mr. G. SMITH, Mr. HARRISON, Mr. SNUDDEN (railway and pier officials), Mr. WILLIAMSON (Vectis Boating Club), Mr. A. GENTLE etc. The following Pier Cos. Employees acted as bearers Messrs. H. NELSON, G. BURNS, J. NORRIS, G. H. SAVILLE, G. HAYLES, and H. JACKSON. The Vicar performed the last sad office at the grave around which the mourners and a good number of sympathising friends assembled.

Wreaths were sent by the following. Directors of the Ryde Pier Coy, staff at the Southern Railway Coy, at Ryde Pierhead and Esplanade, staff of the Ryde Pier Coy, Flag Officers and members of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, Lieut.Col. J. E. RHODES, Mr. and Mrs. FOSTER, Mr. and Mrs. MOORMAN, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Whyatt, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. GOBLE, George, Louie, Ida and Annie, Ern and Fanny, George and Fanny. Mr. PURKIS was the undertaker.
