DEATH OF MISS DORE –

We regret to announce the death of Miss Minnie DORE, which took place at Warwick-street on Monday, at the age of 59. Miss DORE had been in failing health for some years past and the end came peacefully though somewhat suddenly. She was a daughter of Mr. William DORE, who was well known as a tradesman here over 50 years ago. She was a very capable business woman and those who knew her greatly respected her. Although of a retiring nature, she was very thoughtful for others and had a very lovable disposition. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, the interment being at the Cemetery following a short service at Holy Trinity Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. S. A. MARSH). The chief mourners were Mr. S. DORE (brother), Miss Nellie DORE, Mrs. BROWN, Mrs. PARFITT, and Miss Rose DORE (sisters), Messrs. W. BROWN and T. PARFITT (brothers-in-law), and Mr. C. TANSOM (employee). The collection of choice floral tributes were from the following: S. DORE, H. L. DORE; Miss R. DORE; Mr. and Mrs. W. BROWN; Lieut-Comdr. T. E. PARFITT, Argentine Navy (retired), and wife; Capt. A. DORE; Capt. J. J. WILLIAMS; Mrs. F. DORE and family; Mrs. H. NEWMAN and family; Mr. and Mrs. E. PELHAM-CLAY; Mr. and Mrs. REED; Mrs. JAMES; Miss SIBLEY; C. TANSOM; Miss K. JONES; Mrs. MALLETT; Mr. and Mrs. BOYTON; C. W. SALTER and brothers. ---- The family desires to express sincere thanks to all kind friends for letters of sympathy and flowers sent. Please accept this, the only intimation.

NB: As a matter of interest, there is an extremely good photograph of the DORE sisters outside their premises at 2,3,4,5,6 and 7 Warwick-street, taken circa 1906, a copy of which has been reproduced from the original glass-plate into a local book called “The Isle of Wight Revisited”.
