

1881 CENSUS: RG11/1178. folio 38. page 27.

Abode: Gwydyr House, Binstead-road, Ryde, IW.

A. Collingwood DICKSON. Head. M. 70. Baronet & Chaplin RN retired. Tichfield, Hants.

Amelia C. DICKSON. Wife. M. 65. London.

Walter KINGSWELL. Serv. M. 42. Butler. Sea View, Hants.

Charles DAVIS. Serv. Unm. 21. Footman. South Stoneham, West End.

Frances HENLY. Serv. Unm. 39. Cook. Wallop, Hants.

Jane CHURCHER. Serv. Unm. 53. Lady's maid. Worthing.

Mary FOOT. Serv. Unm. 45. Housemaid. Salisbury.

Charlotte FARRIS. Serv. Unm. 20. Kitchenmaid. Southampton.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER 5 Aug 1882

FUNERAL OF LADY DICKSON

Universal sympathy is felt here for Sir Collingwood DICKSON and his family in the heavy blow which they have sustained in the loss of one as amiable and beloved as was Lady DICKSON. This feeling was exhibited at the funeral, which took place on Monday at the Cemetery. Sir Collingwood and his nephew and other relatives were the mourners, and amongst the numerous concourse who assembled round the grave to pay their last token of respect were General Sir Henry DALY, K.C.B., Sir John LEES, Bart., General JEFFREYS, C.B., General the Hon Somerset J.G.CALTHORPE, Admiral Sir Wm. LORING, the Hon G.LITTLE, Major LEEDS, J.P., Admiral KATON, Colonel CLARK, Colonel TATTNALL, Capt. TATTNALL, R.N., Capt. ROGER, R.N., Capt DUFF, Pakenham MAHON, Esq, -- WINTHROP, Esq, W.E.RATCLIFFE, Esq, Edgar RATCLIFFE, Esq, Dr. DAVEY, Rev W.M.HARRISON, Alderman HARRINGTON, J.P., Dr JOHNSTON, Rev R.NUTT, &c. The coffin, of beautifully polished oak, with brass handles, was covered with wreaths of the choicest flowers and the plate bore the following inscription: "Dame Amelia Caroline Beauclerk DICKSON; Born March 4, 1816; Died July 27, 1882." The service at the grave was performed by the Rev W.H.REDKNAP, of St James's Church. Messrs RIDDETT and Son were the undertakers.
