ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 29th July 1954

WELL-KNOWN TAILOR DIES AT RYDE
LATE MR. M. OSBORNE

A son of the man who established OSBORNE's tailors business in Union-street nearly 100 years ago, Mr. Malcolm OSBORNE, died at his home 13 Union-street, Ryde, on Tuesday.

A Ryde man Mr. OSBORNE took over the business upon the death of his father. He was aged 77.

He was among about 30 members of the Island Volunteers who served during the Boer War, and a prominent Freemason, a member of many Island Lodges, including Grand Lodge, East Medina Lodge 175, and East Medina Chapter. He was also a member of the religious military order, Knights Templar and the Rose Croix.

Formerly he was a member of Ryde Rowing Club and Ryde Golf Club. He married twice, his first wife dying about 1910.

Mr. OSBORNE leaves a widow, and two daughters by his first marriage.

The funeral will take place at Ryde Parish Church on Tuesday at 3 p.m., followed by interment at Ryde Cemetery.

THE LATE MR. M. OSBORNE

The funeral of Mr. Malcolm OSBORNE took place on Tuesday. After a service at the Masonic Hall Freemasons representing all the Island Lodges preceded the cortege to All Saints' Parish Church, where a service was conducted by the Rev. G. W. PAGE, R.N. (ret'd). Assistant Provincial Grand Master, Canon A. CORY, and the Vicar (the Rev. R. H. BASSETT, R.D.). Mr. W. L. REED (organist) accompanied the hymns "For All the Saints" and "Jerusalem the Golden."

The mourners were Mrs. M. OSBORNE (widow), Mr. and Mrs. S. KAARAN and Mr. and Mrs. K. COX (sons-in-law and daughters), Mrs. L. RUSSELL (sister), Mrs. Mona ZINK (niece), Ald. Lieut-Col. and Mrs. C. L. ELLERY (brother-in-law and sister-in-law), Dr. MCLEAN, Mr. and Mrs. L. FRICKER, and Messrs. C. RICHARDS, R. G. BURKE, and G. BURKE. Mr. Harold OSBORNE (brother) late of Newport and now residing at Torquay, was unable to attend.

The interment was at Ryde Cemetery, where about 45 floral tributes included those from the East Medina, Medina, Chine, Ryde, and Portsmouth District Masters' Lodges; The Rose Croix Chapter and Vectis Preceptory of Freemasons; Ryde Rowing Club; Island branch of the South African Wars Veterans Association; Darby and Joan Club; and the staff of Messrs. OSBORNE Union-street.
