DEATH OF MR. NOTCUTT

It is with sincere regret that we have to chronicle the death of Mr. W. E. NOTCUTT, of Argyll-Street, who passed away on Tuesday. The deceased gentleman was for a number of years in the employ of Messrs. W. and J. WOODS, of Cross-Street, was a prominent member of the Congregational Church, where he had for some time since the departure of Sergt. Major GALLEY on Military Service, acted as choir leader.

DEATH OF MR. W. E. NOTCUTT

We regret to record the death of an esteemed resident in the person of Mr. W. E. NOTCUTT, of Argyll-Street, who passed away quite unexpectedly on Tuesday from peritonitis. He was for many years a valued employee at Messrs. W. and J. WOODS, ironmonger, Cross-Street. He was an active and prominent member of the Congregation Church, and for some time past was leader of the choir.

Sincere sympathy, we are sure, will be extended to Mrs. NOTCUTT and family in the heavy bereavement that has so suddenly befallen them. The funeral takes place to-day (Saturday), the first part of the service being held at the Congregational Church at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF MR. W. E. NOTCUTT

The funeral of this estimable resident took place at the Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, the ante grave service being held at the Congregational Church, with which the deceased had been identified for a number of years, and touching reference was made by the Rev. PALMER LEWIS to his Christian life and character.

The mourners were Messrs. T. E. and C. NOTCUTT (sons), Mr. A. J. DIMMICK (nephews), and Mr. LAKER. Among those at the Church were Captain NEWTON CAWS, Mr. S. FOWLER, J.P., Mr. A. E. ELLMAN, Mr. BENTALL, Mr. Arthur WOODS, and the following employees of Messrs. W. and J. WOODS, with which firm the deceased served for some 40 years:- Messrs. H.J.T. COOK, T. C. HAWES, F. ORCHARD, W. G. ATTRILL, J. BUTCHER, W. GOSDEN, W. GODDEN, A. GRAY, W. GRIFFIN, G. HARTWELL, T. MUNDELL, W. SHACKLETON, R. WHITE, and W. BARRETT.

A large number of beautiful floral tributes included those from the choir of the Congregational Church and the employees at Messrs. W & J. WOODS.

Mr. C. LANGDON had charge of the funeral arrangements.
