ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 27th July 1933

MISS E. HEWARD

A member of an old Ryde family passed away on Sunday morning in the person of Miss Eliza HEWARD, of 45 Arthur-street, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. HEWARD, kept a fish shop at 139 High-street for many years. Miss HEWARD, who was 72 years of age, had been ill since 1928. In her younger days she assisted in her parents' shop and later took an appointment as book-keeper at the Charring Cross Hotel, London, where she worked until forced to retire on account of failing health.

She had recently lived with her brother, Mr. G. HEWARD. Another brother, Mr. Henry HEWARD, was drowned in the Selina Lifeboat disaster in January 1907.

Miss HEWARD was connected with St. James's Church, where the funeral takes place this (Thursday) afternoon.
