HAMPSHIRE TELEGRAPH AND SUSSEX CHRONICLE
Saturday, January 28, 1893

FUNERAL OF COLONEL A. H. TATTNALL

The remains of the late Colonel TATTNALL were interred in the Binstead Cemetery on Monday, the Rev. W. H. E. WELBY officiating. The body was carried to its last resting place by gardeners of the village. A Scotch tartan was used as a pall. Mr A. TATTNALL, son of deceased, was the chief mourner, and among a large gathering at the graveside, were Colonel HILL, Dr. DAVEY, Mr. HATHWAY, Mr. SIBLEY, the Mayor of Ryde (Alderman ELLERY), Surgeon-General ROSS, Mr. G BRIGSTOCKE, Colonel FEATHERSTONHAUGH, Miss FITZPATRICK (Matron of the Infirmary), and General WILLIAMS.

A large number of floral wreaths and crosses had been sent, including several crosses of St. Andrew. There was a wreath from H.R.H. Prince Henry of Battenberg as "a mark of respect." and the following, amongst others, had sent similar tokens of regard:- Lady COCHRANE, Miss COCHRANE, and Miss Minnie COCHRANE, General the Hon. S. CALTHORPE, Admiral Sir W. and Lady LORING, Mr. and Lady Adela COCHRANE, Mr. and Mrs. HATHWAY, Miss FITZPATRICK, the nurses and servants at the Infirmary. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. JAMES.
