

1898 KELLY's DIRECTORY of Hampshire & Isle of Wight - page 432
WALFORD Miss, 55 George-street, Ryde, IW.

1901 CENSUS: RG13/246. folio 127. page 13.
Address: 40 Avenue Hotel, High Holborn, St. Andrew Holborn Above The Bars.

Frances WALFORD. Visitor. S. 55. London.
(plus staff and other visitors)

In 1911, Frances was living in George-street with a boarder and two servants, She was born in the London area.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 11th March 1916

Death Notice:-

WALFORD .. On March 5th at George-street, Ryde, Miss Frances WALFORD, aged 74 years.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 11th March 1916

DEATH OF MISS WALFORD

The death took place on Sunday last, at St. George's Terrace, George-street, of Miss Frances WALFORD, who was well-known in the town. The deceased who had been in failing health for some time, was 74 years of age.

The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon, the first part of the service being held at All Saints' Parish Church, the Rev. R. B. DURRANT officiating here and at the Cemetery.

The mourners were Miss HILBERT, Mr. Samuel FOWLER, Mr. and Mrs. Horace FOWLER, Mrs. BEE, Mr. George PACK, Mr. John FARDELL, and Dr. P. D. TURNER. There were many personal friends at the Church, and the floral tributes were very beautiful.

The funeral arrangements were in the hands of Messrs. PURNELL and PURNELL.
