ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 2nd July 1936

MR. S. PRISMALL

The death occurred on Tuesday of Mr. Samuel PRISMALL of Hope Cottage, Upton-road, Ryde, after an illness extending over a period of two years. Mr. PRISMALL had been employed as a gardener for many years and was well known as a keen exhibitor of chrysanthemums and roses, in which he specialised, being a member of several horticultural societies. He had been a regular worshipper at St. James' Church for many years.

The funeral took place on Friday when a service at St. James' Church was conducted by the Rev. E. E. GREEN. Chief mourners were:- Mr. T. W. PRISMALL, Mr. S. G. PRISMALL, Mr. E. C. PRISMALL, and Mr. L. J. PRISMALL sons, Mr. D. E. PRISMALL (brother), Mr. P. YOUNG (nephew), Mr. E. GUY (nephew), Mrs. J. TANSOM (sister), Mrs. J. RAYNER (sister-in-law), Mrs. G. RAYNER (niece), Mrs. E. GUY (niece), and Mr. C. GUY (nephew).

Deceased's favourite hymn, "For ever with the Lord," was sung at the church service.

Amongst those present at the service were: Messrs. W. G. BOWLEY, C. TANCOCK, A. V. ROGERS, A. GALE, H. JENNINGS, T. PHILLIPS, and F. MOORMAN, and Mrs. E. SIVIER, Mrs. A. LOCK, Mrs. H. SAVILLE, and Miss L. PHILLIPS.

There were over 30 wreaths, including tributes from the Leader and Members of the St. James' Men's Service, the Committee of Haylands Horticultural Society, and the Staff of the Ryde Branch, International Stores.

Messrs. WHEELER, Bros., were the undertakers.
