ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 19th April 1919

DEATH OF MR. A. REEVES

Another old and respected resident of Ryde has passed away in Albert REEVES, of Clarges-House, Nelson-Street, whose death occurred on Saturday, in his 77th year. The deceased was well-known amongst visitors and townfolk through being engaged with the boats and bathing machines which he owned, and which he had superintended for many years, and his familiar and genial personality will be much missed. In his younger days he was an expert swimmer and a few could surpass him either as a swimmer or oarsman. He was of a very active disposition, and was out on Thursday evening, but taken ill at midnight. Dr. TURNER attended him, but he never recovered and succumbed to heart failure on Saturday midday. Mr. REEVES had enjoyed a wedded life of nearly 50 years and leaves a widow and three sons.

The funeral took place on Thursday. Great respect was shown by the deceased's numerous friends and neighbours, nearly all the houses in Nelson-Street being shaded. The coffin was taken to Holy Trinity Church and a service conducted by the Vicar (Rev. J.E. EDDIS) who also officiated at the graveside.

The mourners were Messrs. A. REEVES, F. REEVES and D. REEVES (sons), Albert Norman and Dan (grandsons), C. REEVES and W. REEVES (nephews), A. LINNINGTON senior (brother-in-law), and A. LINNINGTON junior, Mr. BIGGS, Mr. F. COTTON, and Mr. G. BARTLEY.

Floral tributes were sent by the wife and Dan (son); Albert, Annie and family; Fred, Jessie and children; Mr. and Mrs. G. WILLS; Bert and Gertie; Jack and Jane; Bert and Gertie's children; Mrs. J.G. AUSTIN and Harry; Mr. and Mrs. C.W. SALTER; Mrs. BURCHILL; Mrs. and Miss ROGERS; Albert and Jubie; Frank, Annie and children; Charlie and Rose; Laurie and Edwin; Aunt Laura and all at The Nelson; Fred and Lizzie; Bessie and Charlie; Miss KENYON and Doris; Irene and Mrs. GOOCH.

Messrs. TAYLOR & Son were the undertakers.
