COAL MERCHANT'S FUNERAL

The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Wednesday in last week of Mr. Alfred George LACEY, late of "Lorely", Well-Street, and who for many years carried on the business of a coal merchant in Station -Yard. The deceased was a regular worshipper at the Wesleyan Church, Garfield-Rd., where a service was held conducted by the Rev. F.F. HAWKEY. The principal mourners were Mrs. LACEY (widow), Messrs. Albert, Oliver, Harold and Alfred LACEY (sons), Mrs. J. LEFTLY and Mrs. L.S. . STUBBS, Ventnor (daughters), Mrs. YEATES and KELLAWAY (sisters), Mr. A. IRELAND, Fulham, and Mrs. IRELAND (sister-in-law), and Messrs. KELLEWAY (nephews). Among those at the Cemetery were Ald. G.A. BLACKALL, Mr. T.H. TUTTON (representing the Ryde Sons of Temperance) and Messrs. J. DICKERSON, E. LOCK, W.

DIMOND, and G. TRUCKEL.

The late Mr. LACEY was a charter member of the Sons of Temperance of 36 years' standing, and was also identified with the Ryde Social Club. There was a number of floral tributes including one from Messrs. WOOD & Co.
