DEATH OF MRS. GOBLE

Much sympathy will be felt for Mr. E.C. GOBLE, florist and seedsman of Monkton-Street, in the death of his wife, which took place on Wednesday morning at the I.W. County Hospital, following an operation. The deceased lady who was 54 years of age, was apparently in her usual health until quite recently, and took part in the Mother's Union tea at the Trinity, of which church her husband is people's warden. She underwent the operation on Sunday morning, and although everything possible was done for her and died of heart failure she never recovered. Mr. and Mrs. GOBLE were married for 32 years during the whole of the time they have resided in Monkton-Street and taken great interest in the work of the parish. The deceased had no children but leaves several nephews and nieces.

The funeral will take to-day (Saturday), the interment at the Cemetery being preceded by a choral service at Holy Trinity Church at 2.p.m.

THE LATE MRS. GOBLE

The funeral of Mrs. E.C. GOBLE, of Monkton-Street, took place on Saturday afternoon and was attended by relatives, friends, and employees, every mark of respect being shown. The cortege proceeded to Holy Trinity where the first part of the Burial Service was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. J.E. EDDIS) assisted by the Rev. Norman GRAY. The full choir assisted and led by the hymns "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand," and "Abide with me," the latter being very impressive. The "Dead March" was also played by the organist.

The mourners comprised the following: Mr. E.C. GOBLE (husband), Messrs. George and

William REYNOLDS (brothers), Mr. and Mrs. Robert GOBLE (brother-in-law and wife), Mrs. MAYO (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. HUDSON, Rugby (brother-in-law and wife), Mrs. HARRIS Walthamstow, YOUNG, Brading, (brother-in-law and wife), Miss May GOBLE and Mrs. LANE (sisters-in-law), Miss M. MAYO and Miss M. HARRIS (nieces), Masters W. YOUNG and Fred YOUNG (nephews). The employees, numbered about a dozen, also followed the remains to the Cemetery where the last rites were impressively carried out by the Vicar.

Wreaths were sent by the following: From Husband; "All her dear Ones"; Mr. and Mrs. HARRIS and family (Walthamstow); Rev. J.E. and Mrs. EDDIS; Members of The Mother's Union; Trinity Choir and Sidesmen; the employees; Mr. and Mrs. HOLLAND; Mr. A.G. PURNELL and family; Mr. and Mrs. WARD (Bicester); Mr. and Mrs. BUNTING (Bicester); Mrs. JOLLIFFE Union-Street, Mrs. FELL; Mr. and Mrs. WELLESLEY HILL; Miss BATCHELOR; Lieut. SULLIVAN. R.N., Miss LEIGHTON; Mrs. HARRIS (Bicester); Mr. E. WARD and family; Capt. WEEKS; Mr. and Mrs. STROUD and family; Messrs. GOSTLING and DIMMICK. The funeral arrangements were satisfactorily carried out by Messrs. PURNELL & PURNELL. On Sunday morning the Vicar referred to the sympathy which the whole parish felt with Mr. E.C. GOBLE and family in their great bereavement and he also spoke of the keen loss occasioned by the death of Mrs. GOBLE who, with her husband, had been such respected church workers for so many years.
