WEDDING

On Thursday of last week, at St. John's Church, Mr. Sydney HOGG, youngest son of Mr. W. R. HOGG, of George-Street, Ryde, was married to Miss Daisy Blanche FEBEN, youngest daughter of Mrs. A. FEBEN, of St. John's. The bride wore a dress of cream glacé tucked silk blouse, a silk alpaca skirt, with orange blossoms and Indian veil, and carried a shower bouquet of arum lillies, was given away by her brother, Mr. Oscar J. FEBEN. The bridesmaids were Miss Louisa HOGG (sister of the bridegroom) and Miss Marion FEBEN (niece of the bride), who wore silk blouses and large picture hats and carried pink and white bouquets. Miss Lilian HOGG and Master Willie HOGG, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, of Upton Park, Essex, two little children, were also in the bride's procession. The former wore a pink silk dress with chiffon bonnet and carried a bouquet of white narcissi and the latter wore a Royal blue suit with pale blue corded silk waistcoat and collar to match. Mr. Albert APSEY of Southsea, was the best man. The Rev. G. KING officiated. The hymns "The voice that breathed o'er Eden" and "Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost," were sung, Mr. O. J. FEBEN presiding at the organ and played the Wedding March. There was a large number of presents.
