FUNERAL OF OLDEST ODDFELLOW

The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Tuesday, 3rd, of Mr. Henry Charles DASHWOOD, a retired fishmonger, late of 3, Hill-Street, where he had resided for a great number of years, and was well known and greatly respected in the town. The deceased who expired on the 30th, alt., after almost ten days illness, was 81 years of age and the oldest Oddfellow. He leaves five grown-up daughters and a number of grandchildren. He had carried on his trade for over 50 years and his familiar figure will be missed.

The service will be held at the United Methodist Church, Newport-Street, with which deceased was prominently connected for many years and the minister (the Rev. F. HUSBAND) made kindly reference to their old and esteemed friend, especially to the valued help he rendered in taking local preachers to various parts of the district in his pony and trap, a kindness which they greatly appreciated.

The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. WARD, and Mr. and Mrs. BRIDLE (son-in-law and daughter), Mrs. DOUST (Portsmouth), Mrs. JONES (Bembridge), Miss Elsie WARD, Masters Tom and Jack WARD (grandchildren), Mr. Robert PICKNELL, (nephew), Mr. and Mrs. Fred MORANT, and several other friends were at the graveside. The deceased was buried by the side of his late wife, and the grave was lined with ferns and flowers.

The Rev. F. HUSBAND officiated, and Mr. E. TAYLOR was the undertaker. There was a number of floral tributes.
