SUDDEN DEATH OF A CHILD

On Monday evening, Mr. CHEVERTON, of 8 Park-road, retired to rest with his wife and an infant child about four months. Mr. CHEVERTON got up shortly before 7 o'clock, and went down stairs. Shortly afterwards his wife called to him that the child was dead. He went up and found the child lying on its face quite dead. Dr. DAVIES was called in, and as he refused to give a certificate, the Coroner was communicated with, but did not consider it necessary to hold an inquest.

ACCIDENTALLY SUFFOCATED

On Tuesday morning, at about 7 o'clock, the infant child of Mr. CHEVERTON, of Park-road, was found by its mother lying on its face dead in bed. It had been suffering from a cough and cold, and was placed on one side of the bed at about eleven o'clock on Monday night after being fed. The Coroner was communicated with, but he did not consider an inquest necessary. Mr. J. D. DAVIES was called in after death.
