ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thurs 2nd February 1950

MISS EMMA JANE GRIST

The death occurred on Thursday at the I.W. County Hospital of Miss Emma Jane GRIST, of 33 Swanmore-road, Ryde, at the age of 93 years.

A native of Cowes, Miss GRIST had lived practically all her life in Ryde. Her father, the late Mr. John GRIST, was the first sub-postmaster at West-street Post Office over 80 years ago, and in 1875 she was appointed his assistant. Upon his death Miss GRIST became postmistress, and remained in the business until her retirement in 1913, owing to ill health.

Her brother, the late John GRIST, was a well-known missionary in China and at one time was the President of the United Methodist Church.

The funeral which was conducted by the Rev. T. J. FOINETTE, took place at Ryde Cemetery on Monday. Mourners were: Ald. and Mrs. H. W. WEEKS (nephew and niece); Mr. and Mrs. W. GRIST (nephew and niece); Mr. and Mrs. R. WEEKS (great-nephew and niece); Cllr. S. L. MATTHEWS (Seaview P.O.); Mrs. HOYES and Mrs. F. CREASEY. Mr. and Mrs. D. SHINER (nephew and niece) were unable to be present owing to ill health.
