ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 24th Aug 1933

MR. G. SAVILL

We regret to report the death of Mr. George SAVILL (73), a retired confectioner of 22 Wray-street, which took place at his home on Sunday afternoon while he was seated in a chair. Mr. SAVILL was one of the oldest members of St. Michael's Church, having been a chorister for 19 years, a sidesman, and a member of the Church Council. His work for St. Michael's was much appreciated and his integrity of character won him numerous staunch friends.

He was a native of Enfield, London, having as a small boy worked in the small Arms Factory there. Later he went into the confectionary business and was employed at a number of different bakeries in Ryde. He was with Mr. COMDEN in St. Thomas's-square for a number of years and continued with the firm when Mr. G. E. MEARS took over the business. For some years until he had a seizure in 1928 he was employed at YOUNG's restaurant in Union-street.

He was a member of the Enfield branch of the Ancient Order of Oddfellows. His eldest son Mr. G. H. SAVILL, has been a Pier Official for many years.

The funeral took place at St. Michael's Church yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon. The chief mourners being Mrs. SAVILL (widow), Messrs. G. H. and A W. SAVILL (sons), Mr. and Mrs. A. E. SAVILL (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. ASH (son-in-law and daughter), Mrs. WHITE, Mrs. BURT, Mr. A. BALLARD representing the A.O.F., and Mr. William BURT (old friend).

The interment was at Ryde Cemetery.
